Transactions Between Buyers and Sellers

32 PLACING ORDERS AND PURCHASES

Through the Site, SuppliersCorner provides electronic web-based platform that gives the opportunity of exchanging information between buyers and sellers of products and services. However, for any products or Services, SuppliersCorner does not represent either the seller or the buyer in specific transactions. SuppliersCorner does not control and is not liable to or responsible for the quality, safety, lawfulness or availability of the products or services offered for sale on the Sites or the ability of the sellers to complete a sale or the ability of buyers to complete a purchase. Users are hereby made aware that there may be risks of dealing with people acting under false pretences.

SuppliersCorner may use techniques to verify the accuracy of certain information our paying Users provide us when they register for a paying membership service on the Site. However, because user verification on the Internet is difficult, SuppliersCorner cannot and does not confirm each User's purported identity (including, without limitation, paying Members). We encourage you to use various means, as well as common sense, to evaluate with whom you are dealing.

Each User acknowledges that it is fully assuming the risks of conducting any purchase and sale transactions in connection with using the Site or other Services, and that it is fully assuming the risks of liability or harm of any kind in connection with subsequent activity of any kind relating to products or services that are the subject of transactions using the Site. Such risks shall include, but are not limited to, mis-representation of products and services, fraudulent schemes, unsatisfactory quality, failure to meet specifications, defective or dangerous products, unlawful products, delay or default in delivery or payment, cost mis-calculations, breach of warranty, breach of contract and transportation accidents. Such risks also include the risks that the manufacture, importation, export, distribution, offer, display, purchase, sale and/or use of products or services offered or displayed on the Site may violate or may be asserted to violate Third Party Rights, and the risk that User may incur costs of defense or other costs in connection with third parties' assertion of Third Party Rights, or in connection with any claims by any party that they are entitled to defense or indemnification in relation to assertions of rights, demands or claims by Third Party Rights claimants. Such risks also include the risks that consumers, other purchasers, end-users of products or others claiming to have suffered injuries or harms relating to products originally obtained by Users of the Site as a result of purchase and sale transactions in connection with using the Sites may suffer harms and/or assert claims arising from their use of such products. All of the foregoing risks are hereafter referred to as "Transaction Risks". Each User agrees that SuppliersCorner shall not be liable or responsible for any damages, claims, liabilities, costs, harms, inconveniences, business disruptions or expenditures of any kind that may raise a result of or in connection with any Transaction Risks.

Users are solely responsible for all of the terms and conditions of the transactions conducted on, through or as a result of use of the Sites or Services, including, without limitation, terms regarding payment, returns, warranties, shipping, insurance, fees, taxes, title, licenses, fines, permits, handling, transportation and storage.

User agrees to provide all information and materials as may be reasonably required by SuppliersCorner in connection with your transactions conducted on, through or as a result of use of the Site or Services. SuppliersCorner has the right to suspend or terminate any User's account if the User fails to provide the required information and materials.

In the event that any User has a dispute with any party to a transaction, such User agrees to release and indemnify SuppliersCorner (and our agents, affiliates, directors, officers and employees) from all claims, demands, actions, proceedings, costs, expenses and damages (including without limitation any actual, special, incidental or consequential damages) arising out of or in connection with such transaction.

Advertisement

"Advertisement" refers to the agreement to publish one, or more than one, advertisement or presentation in any form in information or communication services, especially the internet, for the purposes of circulation/promotion. The advertising order is exclusively subject to the General Terms and Conditions and price list of SuppliersCorner, which constitute an integral part of the contract. The validity of any terms and conditions on the part of the Advertiser -or other space buyer- are, if these do not comply with these General Terms and conditions, expressly excluded.

The contract attains validity through confirmation in either written form or by email, subject to the provisions of individual contrary agreements. Should this confirmation not be received, then the order is deemed confirmed by the publication of the online advertisement. Orders placed orally or by telephone are also subject to these General Terms and Conditions. In the event of doubt, orders placed by advertising agencies are a contract between SuppliersCorner and the advertising agency subject to the provisions of other written agreements. Should an advertising client become the Advertiser, then SuppliersCorner must be advised of the name by the advertising agency. SuppliersCorner has the right to demand proof that the client is listed by the advertising agency. Advertising for goods or services from more than one advertising client or other advertiser within a particular advertisement (e.g. banners, pop-up ads) requires an extra contract either in written form or per email.

If the right to requisition individual advertisements is granted under the terms of a transaction, the order must be carried out within one year of the conclusion of the contract. The advertiser has the right to place more advertisements within the contractual period or within the period agreed upon if the capacities of SuppliersCorner are available.

The Advertiser is obliged to provide SuppliersCorner with correct advertising material, particularly with regard to the format or the technical specifications as designated by SuppliersCorner in due time before the publication date. SuppliersCorner will immediately request a replacement if the material is seen to be unsuitable or damaged. SuppliersCorner does not store advertisement data which should be provided again if required. The Advertiser shall bear the costs charged SuppliersCorner for changes to the advertising material that are either requested or justifiable.

35 RIGHT OF REFUSAL

SuppliersCorner reserves the right to refuse or block advertising orders if their contents violate laws or official regulations, or if the publication thereof is unreasonable to SuppliersCorner due to the content, the origin or the technical form, or the content is deemed inappropriate or offensive for some countries.

SuppliersCorner has the right to refuse or withdraw an advertising medium already published if the Advertiser himself belatedly changes the content of the advertising medium or if the data of a link is belatedly changed. The Advertiser takes sole responsibility for any consequences of any such change including but not limited to all expenses incurred by such a change.

36 GUARANTEE OF RIGHTS

The advertiser guarantees that it is in the possession of all rights necessary for registering the company and/or products to the databases and SuppliersCorner is held harmless within the framework of the contract from all claims by third parties which might arise through the violation of any laws. In addition SuppliersCorner is released from the costs of legal defence. The advertiser is obligated to support the Publisher in good faith in his defence against third parties by supplying information and documents.

The Advertiser will pass all the necessary copyrights to SuppliersCorner and CBA Global Suppliers Services LTD for the use of the company's and products registration on all forms of media for promotion purposes. This includes the right of use, ancillary copyright and other rights, in particular the right to duplicate, circulate, transmit, broadcast, abstract from a database and call, both with regard to time and content, to a degree necessary for the completion of the contract. The above mentioned rights are always to be given unboundedly and authorise SuppliersCorner to place advertisements using all forms of technical process and all known forms of online media.

37 DEFAULT

SuppliersCorner will strive for the best possible reproduction of the advertisement in accordance with the technical standard normal at the time and within the framework of predictable demand. SuppliersCorner should be held harmless for circumstantial errors such as (a) by the use of unsuitable depiction software or hardware (e.g. a browser) or, (b) by a malfunction of the communications network belonging to other providers or, (c) by a computer breakdown caused by a breakdown of the system, (d) by so-called proxy servers (message buffers) that are either incomplete or not up to-date or, (e) a breakdown of the ad server lasting no longer than 24 hours (cumulated or continuous) within a 30 day period after the begin of the contractually agreed placement period.

A breakdown of the ad server over a considerable period (more than 10 per cent of the period booked) within the framework of a booking due to run over a fixed period, will release the Advertiser from the duty of payment for the period of the breakdown. Further claims are excluded.

If the reproduction quality of the advertising medium is insufficient and constitutes a considerable error, the Advertiser has the right to a reduction of payment or a perfect replacement, but only to the degree that the advertising medium was affected. If the replacement advertisement is a failure or is unreasonable, the Advertiser has the right to a reduction of payment or a withdrawal from the contract.

If there are defects in the advertising medium documents that are not obvious, the Advertiser has no rights to claim if the resulting publication is insufficient. The same applies if the advertisement is placed several times and if the Advertiser does not draw the Publisher's attention to the errors before the next placement.

If the execution of an order cannot be fulfilled for reasons for which SuppliersCorner cannot be held accountable (for instance software problems or other technical reasons), in particular a breakdown of the computer system, strike, legal provisions, interference in the sphere of responsibility of third parties (e.g. other providers), network operators or service providers or for similar reasons, then the order will be repeated, if this is possible. SuppliersCorner is still entitled to payment for an order that is thus carried out again after the disruption has ceased, and within a time period reasonable for the Advertiser.
